The Legal Center for People with Disabilities and Older People

Colorado's Protection & Advocacy System

2013 ANNUAL REPORT

In FY 2013, The Legal Center provided direct service to 1,334 individuals statewide. Of these, 405 individuals received direct legal representation from The Legal Center. For those clients' cases that were closed with a resolution, the outcome was in the clients' favor 87% of the time.

The Legal Center operates eight Protection and Advocacy Programs:

- Protection and Advocacy for Developmental Disabilities (PADD)
- Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness (PAIMI)
- Protection and Advocacy for Individual Rights (PAIR)
- Protection and Advocacy for Assistive Technology (PAAT)
- Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security (PABSS)
- Protection and Advocacy for Traumatic Brain Injury (PATBI)
- Client Assistance Program (CAP)
- Protection and Advocacy for Voting Accessibility (PAVA)

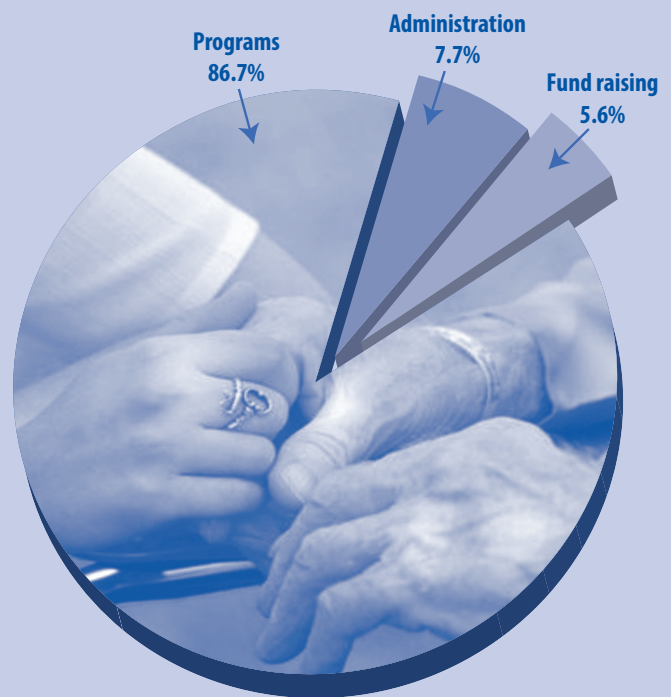

Across these eight P & A programs, direct service intervention included

- Education – 303 cases
- Abuse/neglect and other rights violations – 330
- Housing - 208
- Employment – 179
- Access to benefits - 113
- Access to health care - 87
- Rehabilitation services - 38
- Transportation - 9

In addition, we helped 6,200 people with information and referral, distributed 904 copies of our publications, and conducted 44 training sessions for a total of 2,021 participants. Our website received more than 30,000 visits, and Randy Chapman's Ability Blog had 17,000 hits.

Our Long-Term Care Ombudsman and Legal Services Developer jointly responded to 3,098 calls from consumers and professionals. Together, the two programs they oversee supported the work of the 16 area agencies on aging statewide meeting the needs of more than 37,000 residents in long-term care and providing legal assistance for more than 4,000 older adults.
