Older Americans - The purpose of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman program is to investigate complaints of residents of long-term care facilities (including nursing homes and assisted living residences) or their family members, regarding care, treatment or rights violations. The Legal Assistance Developer provides leadership for improving the quality and quantity of legal services and advocacy assistance to ensure a comprehensive elder rights system. This includes developing, monitoring, evaluating and coordinating available legal services for older persons statewide. The developer also provides technical assistance to the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman program on issues of drafting legislation and interpretation of current laws as well as training.

Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security (PABSS)

A federally funded program created to assist Social Security beneficiaries (SSI/SSDI) who would like to return to work or to begin working for the first time. PABSS is an independent advocacy program designed to address employment related issues. Protection and Advocacy for Voting Access Program activities focus on assisting people with disabilities in Colorado to register to vote, cast their vote and access their polling place. We provide outreach, information, training and technical assistance to people with disabilities designed to promote their participation in the electoral process. We are also working with election officials throughout Colorado to assist them in meeting their disability-related requirements under the Help America Vote Act. Protection and Advocacy for Assistive Technology - An assistive technology device is any device or service that enhances an individual's functional abilities. We work with several funding and service delivery programs, including Medicaid, Medicare, special education, independent living programs, and vocational rehabilitation to provide assistive technologies.

Protection & Advocacy for Survivors of Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) We provide legal assistance and representation to individuals with TBI. The Legal Center has prioritized its services to better reflect the needs for representation in the following areas: Assisting individuals in appealing terminations from the Home and Community Based Services for People with Traumatic Brain Injuries (HCBS-TBI); assisting students with TBI in special education cases when their TBI is clearly not being acknowledged or accommodated; assisting individuals in appealing terminations from TBI Trust Fund services or in filing appeals for inadequate services; assisting military veterans with traumatic brain injury in getting appropriate services from military or civilian providers and ensure they are not being discriminated against due to their disability.

Other Programs - to protect/promote the rights of persons with disabilities and older people.
