Disability Law Colorado Announces the Retirement of Jim McBride

DENVER, CO | April 14, 2023 - Disability Law Colorado announces the retirement of Jim McBride, Chief Financial Officer for the organization. Originally from Ohio, Jim began his career working in theatre and opera management. He came to Colorado in 1981 with his wife, Beth, to work at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts. Jim began working for Disability Law Colorado in 1987 and manages the accounting systems. He has provided 36 years of steady financial leadership, management, and direction for DLC. Aside from this critical role he has fulfilled for Disability Law Colorado, staff could always rely on Jim for a friendly smile or a good laugh. He has also always been quick to offer support and is the consummate team player. It is with mixed emotions that Disability Law Colorado offers its heartfelt congratulations to Jim, as he will be sorely missed. Executive Director Carrie Griffin Basas had this to say of Jim and his service: "Jim has been one of DLC's biggest champions for his more than 36 years of service, doing everything from answering phones to setting up DLC's first email accounts, supporting us as CFO to serving up dry wit at the best times." Thank you Jim for 36 years of exceptional work at Disability Law Colorado!

About Disability Law Colorado: Disability Law Colorado is the Protection & Advocacy System for Colorado and host agency for the Colorado State Long-Term Care Ombudsman program, State PACE (Program for All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly) Ombudsman program, and Legal Assistance Developer for Elders program. We work to protect disability rights, elder rights and residents' rights and improve the human, civil and legal rights of Coloradans.
