First-Ever “Champions of Disability Justice” Honored at June 25 Reception

What:

Disability Law Colorado will host its inaugural Champions of Disability Justice legislative reception, recognizing a select group of lawmakers and community advocates who played key roles in advancing landmark disability rights legislation during the 2025 session. Special thanks go to our Champion Partner, Polsinelli Law Firm, and our Supporting Partner, Craig Hospital.

The names of the award recipients will be announced at the event — this is the first opportunity for media to learn who is being honored and why.

The reception will spotlight legislative victories including:

- Senate Bill 25-001, a new law expanding voting access for people with disabilities
- House Bill 25-1017, which affirms the right to independent living and calls for a statewide plan for community integration

When:

Wednesday, June 25, 2025

4:00 – 6:00 p.m. MDT

Where:

First Floor Reception Area of the AMP Building

1580 Logan Street

Denver, CO 80203

Media Access:

The event is closed to the general public, but journalists are invited to attend. Interviews and a legislative report will be available on-site. Honorees will be available for comment after the announcement.

Contact DLC Communications Manager Felix Ortiz to schedule interviews and for more information.
